Sandy Mackie’s second season at the helm was also quite successful; losing only once in regular season play (8-1-3). That made for only three regular season losses in two years. The Ravens were again ranked as high as # 2 nationally, but finished the season #5 with only one loss, a second OUAA East first place showing and again a home playoff game. Expectations were high and with Lauter, Cochrane, Van Heerden and Zaborski anchoring the back and veterans all through the line-up, it was warranted.

Queens came to town for the first round of the OUA East playoffs and after a 0-0 draw through regulation, the Ravens would eventually lose on penalties (Marty Lauter's penalty seemingly crossing the line, given, then not given) and Queens advanced.

Voyagers battle Ravens to soccer tie

First-place battle with Toronto next week

by Sarah Richards
 Strong Anglo-Catholicism combined with a love of the game. That's the story of the Ravens' soccer team, which has been crowned national champions for the second time in its history.

The team topped a 1-1 tie against the Carleton 5 York 0 in the final game of the season on Oct. 18. The Ravens are now ranked first in the OUA East playoffs.

Ravens' coach, Don Martin, said the team's success is due to their hard work and dedication. "We've been playing for a long time and we've learned a lot from our opponents."

The team's next challenge is to win the OUA East championship. "We're going to give it our all and we're going to win it," said Martin.

Raven men lapse leads to a soccer tie

Stopper Cochrane missed on the field

 The field players were right, but the goalkeeper was not. Cochrane's error was the only one of the game as the Ravens and Carleton drew 1-1 in a soccer match on Oct. 18.

The Ravens' goalkeeper, Liam Stevenson, made a crucial save in the overtime shootout. "He was the hero of the game," said Martin.

Marty Lauter had come back for a final year of eligibility after a four year hiatus. Most of "the crop" remained from 1992, but lost Greg Gallo for a year and Escobar, who would not return. A 39 year old rookie named John Louro (former Angolan International) and Chris Scucatto, were also added to this team along with returning players Jeff Knight, Joe Gabor, Marc Baumgartner, Julian Carr, and Laurentian transfer Les Walden. Steve Ball, Frank De Caria, and Jason Ringhoffer were the goalkeepers. Only two true rookies played this season – Rob Norcross and Marty McCaffery

Overtime shootout: shot by shot

1 — Carleton keeper Liam Cochrane does his traditional gullwing slide approach to shoot a waist-high ball to the right. The shot is blocked as a penalty taker, save by Queen's goalkeeper Liam Stevenson.

2 — Golden Goal John Soler shoots wide to the left of Ravens goalkeeper Steve Ball. The ball strikes the post but does not go in.

3 — Raven fullback Marty Lauter steps up to shoot a high ball that hits the centre of the crossbar and deflects down to the ground. The goal is unguarded as fast, then minutes later, is disallowed by the referee.

4 — Gael Ken Butler kicks a waist-high shot into the centre of the net. Ball dives to his right.

5 — Michael Zelenka, Carleton's keeper, prepares to take his penalty. He shoots straight to score on a waist-high shot to the centre of the net.

6 — Matt Leitch of Queen's takes his kick, but missed the ball too far right, missing the net.

7 — Raven midfielder Andrew Woodbridge shoots low to the left of Stevenson, who is able to get a finger on the ball but unable to stop the powerful shot.

8 — Golden Goal Peter Milnes scores on a ground to the left of Ball.
