*Season Cancelled due to Covid-19 Pandemic.

The Ravens were playing in the Quebec University indoor league (RSEQ) when the Covid-19 pandemic hit. The RSEQ was forced to cancel the remainder of the 2019/2020 varsity season, including the indoor soccer campaigns for both men's and women's Ravens teams. After several days of discussion and analysis by the RSEQ, champions were named for the affected sports. With a league best 6-0-1 record, the Carleton Ravens Men were named 2020 RSEQ Champions.

The Ravens tied the league high with 24 goals during the shortened season. Their final game of the season against the 2nd place Montreal Carabins was unfortunately cancelled. In June, the OUA officially cancelled the Fall semester of the 2020-2021 season. Carleton was slated to host the U Sport Men's Soccer National Championship, as a result of the cancellation the event was pushed to 2021. Stefan Karajovanovich, Chris Malekos and Tony Mikhail would be drafted into the CPL and sign professional contracts ending their glorious Raven careers a little early. Recent graduates Diego Politis (Greece) and Jarred Maloney (Finland) also signed professional contracts.
